DETAILED ACTION

Priority

1. Receipt is acknowledged of papers submitted under 35 U.S.C. 119(a)-(d), which papers have been placed of record in the file.

Specification

2. Applicant is reminded of the proper language and format for an abstract of the disclosure.

The abstract should be in narrative form and generally limited to a single paragraph on a separate sheet within the range of 50 to 150 words. It is important that the abstract not exceed 150 words in length since the space provided for the abstract on the computer tape used by the printer is limited. The form and legal phraseology often used in patent claims, such as "means" and "said," should be avoided. The abstract should describe the disclosure sufficiently to assist readers in deciding whether there is a need for consulting the full patent text for details.

The language should be clear and concise and should not repeat information given in the title. It should avoid using phrases which can be implied, such as, "The disclosure concerns," "The disclosure defined by this invention," "The disclosure describes," etc.

3. The abstract of the disclosure is objected to because it is too long and is not in a single paragraph. Correction is required. See MPEP § 608.01(b).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

4. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

5. Claims 1-23 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

Art Unit: 2859

Claims 1-23 are narrative and render the description of the limitations of the claims unclear. In claim 1 for example, line 2 describes "a unit region processing step" without defining what a unit region is or what is being processed. All claims are replete with such language. As another example, the next to last line of claim 17 describes "measuring by skipping", the examiner cannot ascertain the meaning of this recitation. Applicant is urged to rewrite all claims to conform to US practice avoiding a narrative description of the invention.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

6. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(f) he did not himself invent the subject matter sought to be patented.

7. Claims 1-23 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(f) because the applicant did not invent the claimed subject matter. As the invention can best be understood in view of the rejection above, the PROPELLER technique combined with parallel imaging, was first described by J.P. Pipe in the article "The use of Parallel Imaging with PROPELLER DWI in the Proc. Intl. Soc. Mag. Reson. Med. 11(2003).

8. This application currently names joint inventors. In considering patentability of the claims under 35 U.S.C. 103(a), the examiner presumes that the subject matter of the various claims was commonly owned at the time any inventions covered therein were made absent any evidence to the contrary. Applicant is advised of the obligation under 37 CFR 1.56 to point out the inventor and invention dates of each claim that was not commonly owned at the time a later invention was made in order for the examiner to consider the applicability of 35 U.S.C. 103(c) and potential 35 U.S.C. 102(e), (f) or (g) prior art under 35 U.S.C. 103(a).

9. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. Zhang et al., Gaddipati et al. and Pipe all disclose PROPELLER MRI. Note the abstract of each of the disclosures.
